1. The Committee approved the request made by the Deputy for Staff Training to eliminate the use of OSO and OPC manuals in the Administration and Staff Indoctrination courses. It was agreed that:

a. All changes in administrative regulations and procedures issued by OSO and OPC be incorporated in lectures in these two courses. It was also agreed that three copies of the OSO and OPC manuals would be maintained and kept on file in the TRC library for use by students in the Administration and Staff Indoctrination courses.

b.  would consult with the Deputy for Staff Training, and the Acting Chief, Administrative Training Section, during the week of 17 September 1951 to discuss the inclusion of new topics in the Administration and Staff Indoctrination courses in lieu of the time presently devoted to manual study.

2. The question of scheduling of special training courses, i.e.  training, was raised by the OPC representative, indicating that information recently received with respect to the starting dates of this type of training had been in conflict, thereby creating confusion in planning for the entry of students. It was agreed among the Committee members that in the future all inquiries relevant to the starting dates of courses would be directed to the appropriate deputy within Staff Training and that the announcement of starting dates for all courses would be issued only in formal memoranda by TRC.

3. Holding. It was agreed by the Committee that the holding project would be designated as the Interim Training Course. It was mentioned by the OPC representative that a possible site for interim

OPC returnees report to RMO/TRC as a routine part of their returnee processing in order that selected individuals may be scheduled for debriefing.

8. Procurement of Models. The Committee was asked to approve TRC's initiating the procurement of training models through military channels and through OO/CIA. The models to be obtained are those constructed by industrial organizations. Approval by Committee members was granted.

9. Hazardous duty pay. A paper was submitted by the Deputy for Quasi-Military Training, pertaining to hazardous duty pay for students and instructors participating in hazardous training projects. It was agreed in principle by the OSO and OPC representatives that hazardous duty pay should be arranged, and it was agreed that AD/TRC would discuss this problem with the [redacted] Training Advisory Committee. ILLEGIB
